Why Wellness Integration
Matters in Aesthetics

WELLNESS INTEGRATION IS BECOMING ESSENTIAL IN MODERN AESTHETICS, because external treatments can only go as far as internal biology allows. Skin health, body composition, hair growth, and recovery are all driven by biological factors such as inflammation, hormonal balance, metabolic function, detoxification capacity, and cellular energy. When these internal systems are compromised, even the most advanced aesthetic procedures may deliver inconsistent or short-lived results. Integrating functional wellness support allows providers to address the internal drivers that influence how patients respond, heal, and sustain outcomes over time.

BETTER INTERNAL SUPPORT

ENHANCED PATIENT EXPERIENCE

STRONGER LOYALTY

For medspas, wellness integration also represents a strategic evolution of the business model. Supplementation, detoxification, peptide support, and metabolic or hormonal optimization extend care beyond the treatment room, creating ongoing touchpoints and recurring revenue streams while enhancing clinical outcomes. Practices that integrate internal wellness elevate from transactional aesthetics to long-term health partnerships, delivering better results for patients, and more durable growth for the practice.

IMPROVES
Patient satisfaction by delivering more predictable results
ENHANCES
Outcomes beyond aesthetics, including energy, sleep, mood, and metabolic balance
DRIVES
Referrals by helping patients associate their overall improvements with the practice, not just the procedure
QUICKSILVER SCIENTIFIC® AESTHETICS

Absorption Is the Difference.

In aesthetics, outcomes depend on what the body can actually use — not just what is applied.

FAST UPTAKE
Nutrients absorb quickly.

HIGHLY BIOAVAILABLE
More of what you give is actually used.

CELLULAR DELIVERY
Designed to reach where it matters most.

VISIBLE RESULTS
Outcomes patients can feel and see.

This isn't just formulation. It's delivery.

Quicksilver Delivery Systems®

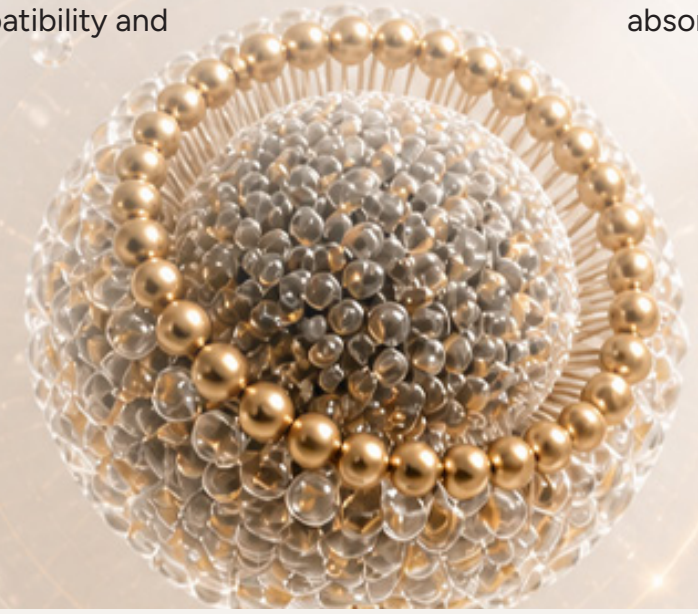

ENGINEERED FOR ABSORPTION & PERFORMANCE

BUILT LIKE THE BODY

Our lipid-based delivery uses high-purity phospholipids — the same structure found in human cell membranes — to enhance compatibility and uptake.

ENGINEERED BELOW 100NM

Smaller particles improve diffusion and cellular delivery. Our liposomes are designed within the optimal range for absorption.

PREMIUM LIPID COMPOSITION

Injectable-grade phosphatidylcholine for stability, compatibility, and superior delivery.

NANO-SIZED FOR BETTER UPTAKE

Particles engineered below 100 nm support faster absorption and efficient uptake.

BEYOND TRADITIONAL DIGESTION

Absorption begins in the oral cavity, helping nutrients enter circulation faster and reducing digestive loss.

RESULTS PATIENTS CAN FEEL

Superior absorption and utilization help create faster, more reliable outcomes patients can notice.

Up to 25x greater bioavailability demonstrated in nanoemulsified delivery compared to traditional delivery formats.

The Proof Behind
Every Formula

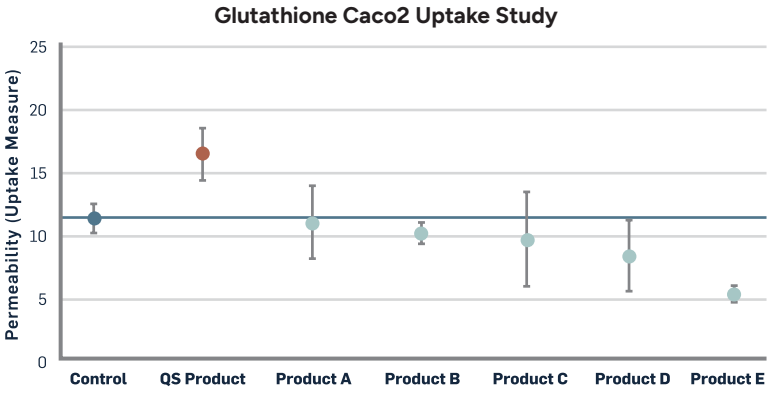

CLINICAL RESEARCH CONSISTENTLY DEMONSTRATES THAT DELIVERY TECHNOLOGY CHANGES OUTCOMES.

Quicksilver Delivery Systems® are engineered to improve absorption through nano-sized liposomes and nanoemulsions. Independent and internal studies continue to demonstrate significantly greater uptake than conventional delivery formats.

25×
GREATER ABSORPTION

Liposomal Glutathione

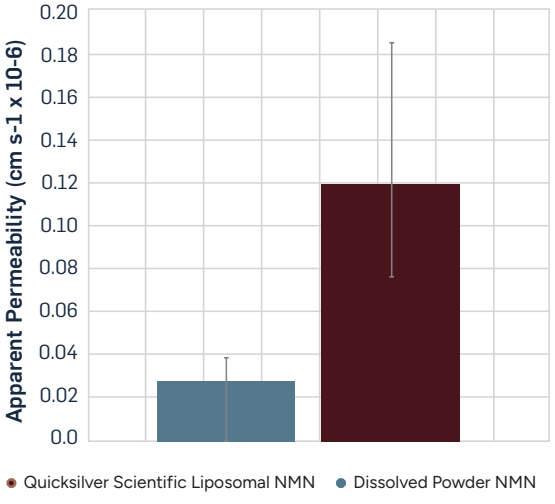

Quicksilver Scientific's Liposomal Glutathione has higher bioavailability than all five glutathione brands, with Quicksilver's glutathione levels measuring 104% of label claim.

4.25×
GREATER ABSORPTION

Liposomal NMN

Liposomal NMN, an NAD+ precursor featured in NAD+ Gold® and NAD+ Platinum®, demonstrated 4.25× greater intestinal absorption than dissolved NMN powder.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR PRACTITIONERS

Higher uptake means more active ingredients become available to the body—helping patients receive greater value from every dose.

How to Spot a Better Liposome

Not all liposomal products are created equally.

1 PARTICLE SIZE MATTERS

Smaller, uniform liposomes are more readily absorbed than larger, unstable particles.

QUICKSILVER SCIENTIFIC®		OTHER LIPOSOMAL BRANDS
20-100 nm Nano-sized liposomes	VS.	200-500+ nm Larger, less uniform liposomes

2 THE DIFFERENCE IS VISIBLE

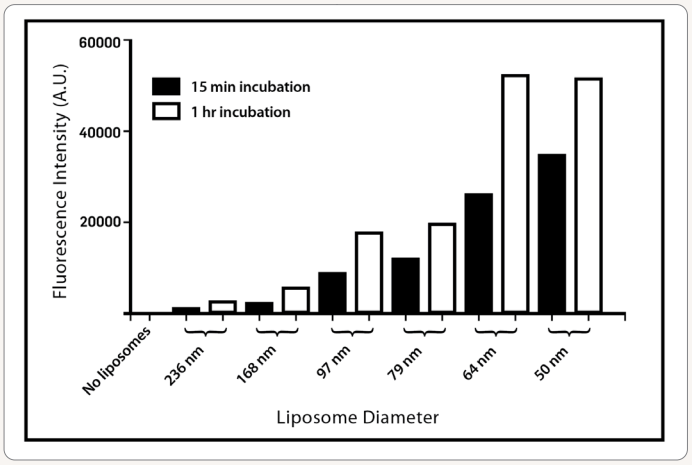

Transparent, uniform formulations often indicate smaller, well-formed nanoparticles. Larger particles scatter light, creating cloudy or separated solutions.

3 BACKED BY RESEARCH

Smaller Liposomes = Greater Uptake

Independent research demonstrates uptake increases dramatically as liposome size decreases below approximately 100 nanometers.

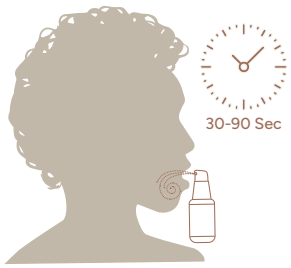

QUICKSILVER DELIVERY SYSTEMS®

- Nano-sized particles
- High-quality phospholipids
- Patented delivery technologies
- Manufactured and tested in-house
- Clinically evaluated uptake

How to Take Quicksilver Oral

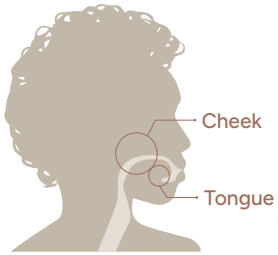

Liposomal Products

1

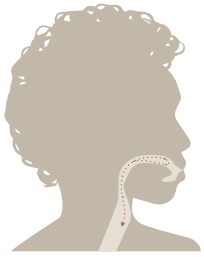

HOLD THE LIQUID IN YOUR MOUTH FOR 30–90 SECONDS

(longer is better)

2

ALLOW IT TO SIT UNDER THE TONGUE AND/OR IN THE CHEEKS

3

SWALLOW

For best results, avoid drinking or eating for 10 minutes after swallowing.

This method supports sublingual and buccal absorption, allowing nutrients to begin entering circulation through the oral mucosa. Absorption continues as the formula is swallowed and moves through the upper gastrointestinal tract, providing multiple touchpoints for optimal absorption and effect.
